THE HOLY BIBLE

When my son was young (many moons ago) I would ask him as we were headed out the door to go to church if he had his Bible with him. He would almost always say, "You mean The Holy Bible?"

Have you noticed that publishers are producing all types of Bibles for specific target groups? There is a Study Bible, a Men's Bible, a Women's Bible, a Student Bible, a Children's Bible, a Minister's Bible, an Archeology Bible, a Bride's Bible, a Daily Bible, a Chronological Bible, a New Believer's Bible, a Witness Bible, a Life Application Bible, a Devotional Bible, a One-Year Bible, a Pew Bible, a Spirit-Filled Bible, a True Identity Bible, a Net Bible and many more.

It doesn't seem bad to me if marketing the Bible to specific target groups will help individuals read it. I have many of the different types of Bibles and have found them to be very useful in many areas of study, daily reading and application. In some ways, the more Bibles the merrier. God is big enough and His word is powerful enough to be effective through any marketing schemes.

However, it does seem like a sad thing to me if marketing the Bible to specific target groups causes the Bible to lose any of its uniqueness as the holy book from God. We are really missing something if we see the Bible as nothing more than just another one of the many self-help books out there. We must never forget that the Bible is "God-breathed"!

Do you have your Men's Bible, Women's Bible, Life Application Bible or whatever-title-is-on-the-cover Bible? "You mean The Holy Bible?" Yes, that's the one!
